To access your journal, select the Journal link from the My Home or Course Home navigation bar.

Creating a course journal entry

Use a course journal entry to record notes on a topic, manage to-do lists and research for a project, or reflect on a lecture.

From the My Journal page:

- 1 Select the Course tab.
- 2 Select a Course Offering and a Topic or Module using the drop-down lists. This associates your journal entry with particular learning material.
- 3 Click Add Entry.
- 4 Give your entry a Title.
- 5 Add your Content.
- 6 Click Save.

The screenshot shows the 'My Journal' interface with the 'Personal' tab selected. It includes dropdown menus for 'Select a Course Offering' (ENGL 446 S06 - ENGL 446 - Postcolonial Literature S06) and 'Select a Topic or Module' (Canadian Literature). Below these are 'Delete' and 'Add Entry' buttons. A section titled 'Modules and Topics' shows 'Canadian Literature [module]' with a list of journal entries. The first entry is 'Study Notes for Canadian Literature' dated 'Jun 5, 2006 11:28 AM', with the title 'Michael Ondaatje's In the Skin of a Lion' and a bulleted list of details: 'Set in 1920s, mostly in Toronto', 'Main characters Patrick Lewis, Hanna, Clara Dickens, Alice, Caravaggio, Nicholas Temelcoff, Ambrose Small', and 'Title from the Epic of Gilgamesh'. 'Delete' and 'Add Entry' buttons are also present at the bottom of the entry list.

Creating a personal journal entry

Use a personal journal entry for personal writing projects, notes, and reflections that are not directly related to a course or topic.

From the My Journal page:

- 1 Select the Personal tab.
- 2 Click Add Entry.
- 3 Give your entry a Title.
- 4 Add your Content.
- 5 Click Save.

Viewing a journal entry

To view a journal entry:

- 1 Select the Personal or Course tab.
- 2 If you select the Course tab, select the Course Offering and Topic or Module using the drop-down lists.

Note Selecting “All Module, Topic, and Course Offering journal entries” lists all journal entries for the chosen course.
- 3 Find the journal entry in the list that displays. The most recent entries are at the top of the list.

Editing a journal entry
